We Dedicate

TO ONE who has guided us in many ways on the field and in the classroom, to one who has led us on to newer, greater heights of endeavor and achievement, is this Hi-Jacket of 1948 dedicated.

In the fall of 1945 Mr. Leo came to Osbourn immediately after receiving his discharge from the armed forces. It did not take us long to learn to appreciate his sense of fair play, his genuine respect for good sportsmanship, and his loyal services to the students and to the school. With 1946 he led our teams to more victories than ever before. With 1947 he was directly responsible for securing lights for Swaverly Field and his efforts have made it possible for more people to enjoy the athletic activities he so ably directs.

Therefore, it is with gratitude and a sense of prevailing friendship that we dedicate this book to Coach James J. Leo.

We Honor

MISS CARRIE B. LANFORD

THE TRIM slim lady in the office" . . . there are many adjectives we could use to describe our own Miss Lanford, and they would all be nice ones. Chances are she does not need any public declaration of our admiration. She has probably gathered this from the few years she has been with us. She has felt the knocks along with us; she has felt the same joy for us in our achievements that we have for ourselves. In her association with us she has grown to understand us, so that her title of Guidance Counsellor is well earned.

Since Miss Lanford moved over from Bennett School and became our Assistant Principal, she has been a counsellor to us. Remember how we learned to distinguish the spelling of "principle" from "principal" in Spelling Class? "Your principal is your pal." In this case our Assistant Principal really is our pal, and we take this moment and this page in our yearbook to honor Miss Carrie B. Lanford.

Foreword

THE END of a long, long trail is in sight, as we, the class of 1948, prepare to go forward into a world that is what we choose to make it for ourselves. Assembled here are the little memories, the many small episodes, the friends who have made the trail of years behind us the background we will need in making another trail of years to higher achievement.

The Senior Class

Remember how we felt back four or five years ago when we were just starting out on that long, long trail of years with "Class of '48" shining like a torch at the end?

Here we are "at the top," and do we feel any different? Well, maybe we do. We remember how we felt when we were little insignificant Freshmen, being initiated into the wonders of high school. Unhappily for us, "Rat Week" was installed, when we were lowly Freshies. So, we could not escape that horror. For a while we scuttled through the halls, not daring to call our souls our own. Then we began to take notice. This was a grand set of teachers we had; we began to find new friends among new classmates and the upper classmen; over us on the wall in the auditorium was Miss Eugenia's portrait looking down on us, and back of it all, dear old Osbourn High watching over us.

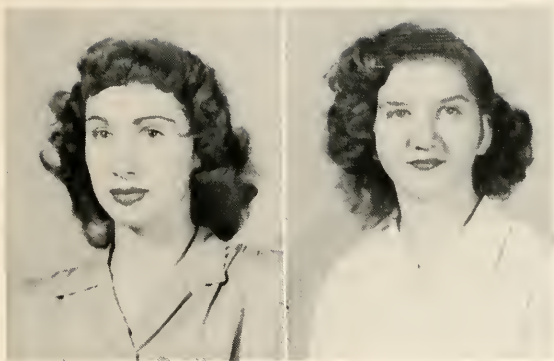

That year came to an end; and then we were Sophomores, one step nearer our goal. When September came 'round, we were back again, but not green Freshmen any more. We were the Sophomore Class—that in-between stage, neither most lowly nor most high. We saw our classmates chosen for Halloween Court, and we saw the months go by and the gym decorated for the Prom for which we weren't eligible yet. We saw another Senior Class leave, and here we were, Juniors!

That year flew by too; it seemed Time knew we hadn't much longer to stay here, and was making it even less. That was the year of the Prom we really worked on, complete with memory books and all the fixin's. Then the Prom was only a memory, and a few scraps of faded crepe paper and the ribbon from the girls' corsages. Then it was time to say goodbye to our friends in the graduating class, and embark on our last summer vacation from Osbourn.

In the Fall of '47, we chose Oliver Dashiell for our President, Betty Coverston as Vice-President, Joyce Keys as our Class Secretary, and Bobby Cornell as Treasurer, to guide our steps along the last stretch of the trail. The end of '47 went as smooth as silk, and we stepped into '48 with the knowledge that this was Our Year—our year to receive the final honors from Osbourn High, and our year to relinquish the trail-blazing to the on-coming Senior Class. It was our year, too, we realized, to discover in our hearts that which we, as Freshmen, couldn't have believed possible—that little sharp pain at leaving our Alma Mater to the underclassmen, however able to carry on they might be. The year of the Prom that was what no other Prom yet had been; the year of looking on from above, and toward the end, already feeling a little left out, when we heard the underclassmen talking of "next year."

Well, "next year" think of us. And think of us on Graduation Night as the strains of the Recessional take us farther and farther from Osbourn High. And in years to come remember the Class of '48. We'll be remembering you and everyone and everything that make up Osbourn. We won't need memory books or diaries to remember it all. After all, how could we forget?

Student Cooperative Association

After a vigorous campaign in March 1947, Bobby Lymburner was elected Student Cooperative Association President for the following year, in a run-off election over Bert Roseberry. His platform contained promises "to obtain a monogram for the stage curtains, to start a fund for curtains for the windows in the auditorium, to secure cooperation between students and faculty, to support the Yellow Jacket and Hi-Jacket, to have on sale school pennants and monograms, and to consider all worthy suggestions for the betterment of the school."

During this school year many new improvements have been made at Osbourn. The lights have been put on the athletic field; bleachers have been built in the gym; the Honor Society Store has received Osbourn pennants and monograms; a clock that works has been put in the auditorium; the Radio Dances have been improved; the gymnasium floor has been painted; new clubs have been established; and cheerleaders have been added to the original squad. All in all, it is a fine record of achievement.

On October 24, 1947, a meeting of the Virginia State S. C. A. was held at Mary Washington College in Fredericksburg. The Osbourn delegates, Bobby Lymburner, Barbara Lymburner, Teddy Peters, and Rembert Parler returned with interesting reports on the discussions. Rembert led one discussion group.

Another S. C. A. meeting, though on a much larger scale, was the annual convention of the Southern Association of Student Government, which was held in Corpus Christi, Texas, in November. Mariam Gregory, Bobby Lymburner, Bobby Roof and Miss Smith attended the convention and brought home many new ideas on student government.

A County Federation Senate meeting was held at Brentsville District High School on November 4th and a meeting was arranged for April 1948, to be held at Osbourn High School.

In addition to the President and officers of the S. C. A. there are two departments, the Senate and the Council. The Senate is composed of three Seniors, two Juniors, and one Sophomore, all elected by the council. The Senate has joint power with the Council to organize regulations and activities for the school. The Council is made up of the chairmen of all organizations and the home room presidents. It was especially active this year. After two days of stormy session, the resolution was passed by the Council to add new cheerleaders to the squad. This was probably the most controversial point decided by the Council this year.

Aside from the many branches of the student government, perhaps should be mentioned the most important factor of all—the student's cooperation with the S. C. A. That, along with able government and good will, has made this a most successful year.

Adviser MISS NANCY PARRISH

These are the people responsible for the neatness of the building this year. We have seen them running about with brooms, dusters, furniture polish, and trash cans industriously cleaning up after us. Or perhaps, you have been chased out of the auditorium with your Eskimo Pie by some efficient member. Whatever your experience, you have had a chance to notice the energy of this committee and the sparkling tidiness in which they have kept the newly painted high school.

Chairman BERT ROSEBERRY

Adviser MR. BENNETT

If you have noticed anyone bending frantically up and down on the grounds of Osbourn High, it was not someone with too much reflex action; neither was it someone doing morning exercises, but it was probably a member of the Grounds Committee picking up paper. These boys not only collect the outside trash, but cope with the Osbourn parking problem. Both of which tasks they handle with efficiency.

General Chairman.....BETTY COVERSTON
Radio and Dance Committee...SHIRLEY SAYLORS
Assembly Committee.....NORMA WAYLAND
Refreshment Committee.....DOLLY LONAS
Advisers.....MISS LANFORD,
MISS FAULCONER, MISS NELSON

When you hear the tender strains of "Bongo, Bongo, Bongo," issuing loudly from the auditorium, you know the Extra Curricular Activities Committee is at work. They play the victrola at lunch; with the P. T. A. they organize the bi-weekly Radio Dance; and they arrange the entertaining Assembly Programs. This committee has contributed greatly in making the past year enjoyable inside and outside of school.

Publicity Committee

Chairman.....ARMISTEAD SINCLAIR
Advisers.....MRS. STONE, MISS UPSHUR

Poster paints, printer's ink, drawing or writing ability, an accumulation of these plus members and you have the Publicity Committee. For this committee is chosen the editor of the Yellow Jacket and the editor of the Hi-Jacket. Besides sponsoring the year-book and newspaper, the members publicize any activity of the school.

Left to right: M. Gossom, A. Sinclair, M. Gregory, P. Muse.

Health Committee

Seated: Mrs. McManaway, N. Surphin, H. White.
Standing: A. Landis, M. Hottle, B. Speakes, D. Jacobs, J. Keys. Patient: K. Dogan.

Chairman DORIS JACOBS
Adviser MRS. McMANAWAY

Whether you have just broken a bone, or just had a fainting spell, these are the girls who come around with their First Aid equipment to patch you up and put you together again. They keep the Health Room clean, change the sheets, see that all the medicines are in order, and take care of anyone needing their help.

Bonds And Stamps Committee

After a year of licking stamps, you would probably find this committee highly in favor of adding raspberry and strawberry flavor to the stick-um on stamps. Their posters can be seen in every classroom advertising the Victory Bonds and Stamps which they have been busy selling through the year.

What paper brings you those explosive editorials? That on the spot, hot-off-the-press news? The latest on Osbourn romances? It is not the Messenger, not the Journal, not the Washington Post, but the Yellow Jacket. The paper has an enthusiastic staff of alert reporters who have covered the year's news events, and provided entertaining reading for Osbournites, old and new.

The paper is published monthly.

With the first school days in September we began talking about the 1948 Hi-Jacket. Hours and hours we spent studying annuals, making picture schedules, planning page sequences, soliciting ads, arranging pictures, checking on names, writing copy, and all of the many tasks connected with editing the school yearbook.

The staff is appreciative of the help we received from everyone. To the patrons who purchased ads, to all who bought copies of the annual, to the people who loaned us cars for our numerous errands, to Mr. Ross for his cooperation with the staff during those trying days in January when we were getting ready to go to press, to Mr. Newlan for his patience in making group pictures, to Viola Ritenour who typed all of our copy and Vera Merchant who typed the ads—to all of you we can only say, "Thanks! We hope you like the 1948 Hi-Jacket."

The Hi-Jacket during its short life of four years has become an integral part of Osbourn High School and the staff of the 1948 edition is proud to present this as our contribution to become a part of the heritage of our high school.

At the time this picture was taken fifty-four members comprised the band, which was organized this year. Since then, more beginners were taken into the band to increase the number to seventy. The band will serve both school and community. This organization will, in due time, be one of the most important units in the community for it will represent the school and community in many out of town engagements.

The band is directed by Mr. Michael Ronca, who has very skillfully and capably undertaken the organization of this entirely new group.

To enhance the band at football games and parades sixteen majorettes will be incorporated to give the organization the necessary "oomph." The class for majorettes was organized in January with Barbara Hendryx of Fairfax High School as instructor.

Keep posted on this organization. The Hi-Jacket predicts that they will have great things in store for us.

The 1947 football season may be called one of the greatest Osbourn has ever had, although it was not very successful as scores go. The second home game found us playing under lights which were gained chiefly by the efforts of Coach Leo. This was the crowning achievement of the season and as a result the home games were enjoyed by capacity crowds from all over Prince William County.

This season's schedule was the hardest ever encountered by any team that has ever played for Osbourn High. The Yellow Jackets met such teams as Front Royal, James Monroe, Culpeper, Mount Vernon, and Charles Town. Co-Captains Harris and Sinclair led their team through some spectacular games, and you may see the results as follows:

On February 11, 1948 the Lion's Club of Manassas gave a banquet in honor of the squad. A trophy was presented to Bill Thomasson for being the outstanding linesman of the year. Several players from the Washington Redskins team were present. The other annual athletic award will be made on Graduation Night.

Second row: Coach Leo, C. Carattini, J. Martin, B. Lymburner, T. Cavanagh, W. Polen, A. Sinclair, B. Stickel.

When Coach Leo gave the call for basketball, he was heartily answered by more than a score of candidates. Several combinations have been tried, but as yet there has been nothing definite. But with Peters, Reid, Carattini, Parler, and Kline at forwards; Stipe, Polen, and Cavanagh at center; and Sinclair, Saylors, Swank, and Lymburner at guards; he should put out a high-scoring machine.

Mr. Leo, also, has a Junior Varsity this year. It is composed mostly of freshmen and sophomores. The Jayvees also have the material for a successful season.

Due to the early deadline of this book we can only give you a schedule:

* Dec. 16—Falls Church.....	Away	* Feb. 6—Falls Church	Home
Dec. 19—Alumni	Home	* Feb. 10—James Monroe	Home
* Jan. 9—James Monroe	Away	* Feb. 13—Culpeper	Home

Girls' Basketball

This year our girls have a new coach, Miss Bettie Parrish, who is an alumna of Osbourn High School. Miss Parrish was ably assisted in coaching by her sister, Nancy. The candidates for this year's team have last year's experience to help them along. With fine pass work and sharpshooting, the girls should have a very successful season. Since the annual goes to press early, we can only give you the proposed schedule:

Dec. 16—Fall Church Away
 Dec. 19—Alumni Home
 Jan. 9—James Monroe Away
 Jan. 13—Falmouth Home

Feb. 6—Falls Church Home
 Feb. 10—James Monroe Home
 Feb. 17—Mount Vernon Home
 Feb. 24—Mount Vernon Away

In Spring a young man's fancy turns to - - - baseball, this year being no exception. A large number of candidates turned out to try their luck. All of the home games will be played on Friday nights. The girl's softball team has the same schedule, but they will play their home games in the afternoon. Due to the early deadline of this book we can only give you a proposed schedule:

April 9—Nokesville Here
 April 13—Culpeper There
 April 16—Occoquan Here
 April 20—Nokesville There
 April 23—Caroline Here
 April 27—Falls Church There

April 30—Falmouth Here

FEATURES

Weren't We

You know them well; you have seen them practically every day for at least four years now. You don't have to stop and think each time you see them, "Now who is that?" But stop and think now . . . do you know these people? Certainly, you do for they are the class of 1948 of Osbourn High School. Of course, they may have changed a little in the years between then and now, but see if you can recognize these Mother's darlings of yesteryear as Osbourn's pride and joy of today.

If you have finally given up, turn this page upside down and observe the numbers and names, and smile to yourself as you travel back over the years to see your school-mates as they were, not so many years ago.

SCHOOL

Beware of being tardy! If you are, you'll have to go to the office for an excuse. Of course, it isn't too bad since Mrs. Guy is always so pleasant to us.

Could be that Mr. Ross is asking for more heat on these cold mornings. We can count on Mr. Dawson and Mr. Landis to oblige.

Reading is made very attractive in our library. Advertising pays off in more requests for books, says the library staff.

The Halloween Carnival is always a gala night. Sponsored by the civic organizations in town, it is an annual event that we all anticipate with eagerness. In 1947, King David Harris of Osborn High School and Queen Ann Royston of Manassas State Vocational School, reigned over the Halloween Court.

LIFE

Rat Week didn't go over so well this year, but the Rat Party was fun. Queen Patsy Barron and King Carey Corder are pictured with Senior room presidents, Benny Cross and Oliver Dashiell.

Ann Neeley Leo, mascot for the cheerleaders, gives Lois Woodyard some points on leading cheers.

Comes Spring and those wonderful picnics.

Lucky Mr. Ross bagged a turkey—just in time for the Thanksgiving feast.

The reference section of the library finds Margaret Jones and Bette Slusher doing some serious studying.

Future Homemakers are Josephine Dellinger, Barbara McCuin and Marie Davis. Keep your eye on these gals, fellows.

Only the rustle of turning pages can be heard on the day the Yellow Jacket comes out. Tommy Beane and Betty Ritter have found a quiet spot in which to read the school news.

LIFE

Excitement was the keynote at our first night football game. The Nokesville Band gave color to the occasion as they paraded under the lights.

Mixed among the interested spectators were witches, goblins, and all sorts of curious things at the Community Halloween Carnival, witnessed by a capacity crowd.

Caught unaware was Mr. Leo as he left the gym after basketball practice.

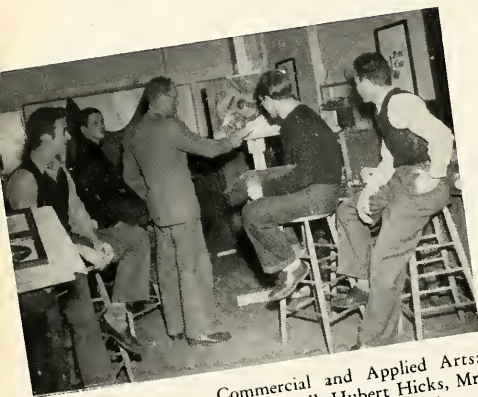

Vocational School

Cosmetology: Mrs. Mary Edwards, Instructor, A. Yawetz, Mrs. E. George, and Sophie Slusher.

Administration Building.

Commercial and Applied Arts: Oliver Dashiell, Hubert Hicks, Mr. Cox, Instructor, Bob Stickel, and Fred Blackburn.

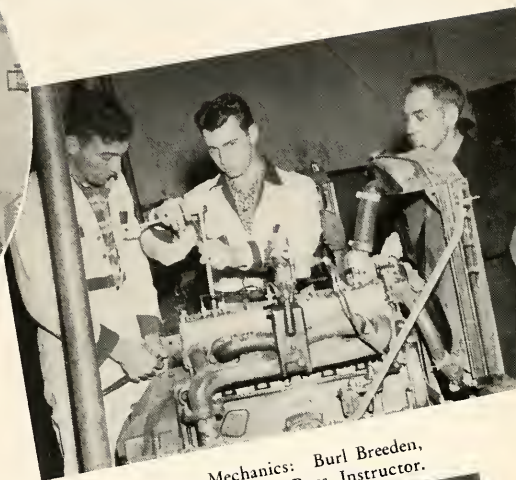

Drafting: Mr. Schneider, Instructor, and Charles Gardner.

We work so closely with the Manassas State Vocational School that we could not close our yearbook without a glimpse behind the scenes at our vocational classes. Established in 1944 by the State Board of Education, it is designed primarily to meet the needs of training beyond the high school level for the youth who prefers technical training to professional college training, but at present the school also supplements the offering of high schools by making its services available to any student in high school in Virginia. Academic classes are offered through Osbourn High School. Consequently, many of our students are at the Vocational School for three hours and in Osbourn for three each day. School buses follow regular schedules between the two schools.

During the past year the following courses were offered at Manassas State Vocational School: Automobile Mechanics, Carpentry and Woodworking, Commercial Art, Cosmetology, Drafting, Electricity, Machine Shop, Office Practice, Practical Nursing, Radio, Refrigeration, and Welding.

Refrigeration: Mr. Trainham, Instructor, and David Jones.

Auto Mechanics: Burl Breeden, R. Foote, and Mr. Ross, Instructor.

Practical Nursing: Mrs. Hale, M. Davis, and Mrs. Gue, Instructor.

Welding: Stanley Cornwell, Paul Ward, Charles Rust, Mr. Baxter, Instructor, and Ralph Gordon.

Carpentry: Aubrey Peed, T. Gravley, and Mr. Andrus, Instructor.
